

ALISTAIR WEBSTER QC

Year of Call: 1976

Year of Silk: 1995

Chambers: Lincoln House Chambers, London

PROFILE

Alistair is a highly regarded and experienced barrister, specialising in commercial crime, crime and regulation.

He has successfully represented solicitors, company directors and other professional charged with a multitude of offences as varied as fraud by abuse of trust, corporate manslaughter, money laundering and offences arising from regulatory non-compliance. He has advised and represented members on a number of occasions with positive results

APPOINTMENTS

Recorder of the Crown Court

Serious Fraud Office Panel Member for fraud and proceeds of crime

EXPERTISE

- Business Crime & Financial Regulation
- Civil Law
- Criminal Law
- Inquests
- Regulatory

TESTIMONIALS

"Tenacious, fearless and a highly skilled cross-examiner."

"Extremely able and committed, he is good both in written argument and in his advocacy."

"He's got a real range of expertise – he's great on his feet, commands the courtroom but also very, very good with clients in sensitive situations. He's always available to go over ideas. He's a pleasure to work with and gets great results."

"A tactical genius!"

LMA
LEGAL SERVICES